If and when the defendants file a motion to dismiss, the court will enter a briefing schedule. The plaintiff is reminded of basic filing requirements: (1) letters to the judge are not permitted. Any requests for court action must be made by motion and filed with the Clerk of Court; (2) the plaintiff must provide the court with the original plus a judge's copy of every document filed; and (3) every document filed must include a certificate of service showing that a copy was mailed to opposing counsel.
